

The First Unitarian Church of Baltimore

2009 Baltimore Social Action Awards Dinner Celebrating Beacons of Hope in Baltimore and the World

Sunday, October 11, 2009
Enoch Pratt Hall, 514 N. Charles St.
Reception: 5pm - Dinner: 6pm

William Ellery Channing Lifetime Achievement Award

Pete Seeger

Grandson Tao Rodriguez-Seeger accepting on his behalf and performing musical selections

Enoch Pratt Community Award Recipients

Dr. Larry Egbert, peace and social justice activist

Mary Slicher, founding Executive Director of Project PLASE

Mary Joel Davis, founding Executive Director of Alternative Directions

University of Maryland School of Social Work Community Outreach Service (SWCOS)

Three-course meal catered by The Dogwood
2008 Best Sustainable Restaurant, Baltimore Magazine

Seating is limited. To reserve tickets at $25 per person, visit the SAC table during coffee hour, call 410-235-0660 or e-mail socialaction@firstunitarian.net.